

Table of Contents

Chapter	Page
1. So You’re an Entrepreneur – Apply It to a Dental Practice! Step One -----	1
2. The Boutique Car Wash or the Auto Collision Center – Pick Your Demographics Carefully! Step Two -----	7
3. The Medical Treatment Model – Stop Being a Psychologist and Start Being a Surgeon! Step Three -----	14
4. Restorative Choices –Don’t Let The Cosmetic Hype Cause You Stress! Step Four -----	20
5. The Multi-doctor, Multi-office Model – It Works! Do It! Step Five -----	24
6. Pediatric Dentists Versus General Dentists for Children – What the Future Holds! Step Six -----	28
7. Manage Your Practice Like A Big Business – Forget the Dental Trend! Step Seven -----	32
8. Advisors – Get Away From the In-Office Divas and Can’t Do Dentists – Hire Pros! Step Eight -----	41
9. The Ortho Opportunity – Why It Can be a Win Win! Step Nine -----	45
10. The Job’s Not Done — Monitor Your Results, Evaluate Your Performance, Make Corrections When Necessary! Step Ten -----	49
11. Non-Profits and Government Agencies – On Your Side or Not!-----	52
12. What Organized Dentistry Misses — and Doesn’t Know It! -----	55
13. What the Academic Centers Don’t Teach—and Never Could!-----	57
14. Continuing Education – Stop the Social Dancing and Get To Real Networking!-----	59
15. Where to Start – A Business Plan Is Essential!-----	61
16. Consequences of Success – Mostly Positive!-----	63
Epilogue-----	65
Sanger’s Ten Bonus Points (They’re Free) -----	67